ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Liaison Pieracci announced that a task force has offered to sponsor teen events in the community and are looking for ideas. Might have a representative at the next meeting to discuss more details.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Youth Commission work plan and subcommittee development
 - a. College and Beyond: Brainstorming ideas for the annual job fair. Likely will be a virtual event. All commissioners will look for job opportunities and report their findings at the next meeting.
 - b. Academics: Held a trivia night before the holidays that was successful. Planning to do another trivia night soon. Also looking into a book exchange or writing contest event.
 - c. Civic Engagement: Discussing ideas for a virtual coffee and politics event in the spring. Will be reaching out to local politicians soon.

- d. Environment: Environmental-themed trivia night being planned for Jan 26 at 7:30 pm. Target audience will be 3rd-5th graders. Will be making the flyer and begin advertising this week.
- e. Wellness: Looking into a letters for seniors event. Will be contacting local senior care facilities to see who would like to receive letters.
- f. Recreation: Winter craft box event was very successful. Planning for a February craft box on the 13th.
- g. Social Justice: Jan 14th is the women's march poster making event from 3:30-4:30. Thinking of possible February and March events as well.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Commission Collaborative
 - a. Commissioner Kanumury D. gave an update on the Commission Collaborative meeting he attended last month. He learned about the other commissions in Campbell and how they would like to collaborate on more events in the future. The planning commission liaison would like to present at our next meeting on the topic of zoning and Campbell's history.
2. Kindness Week
 - a. Liaison Pieracci informed the commission on an event that the City of Cupertino and Saratoga would like to collaborate on called Kindness Week in February. This event will have a week of kindness-themed events and activities for people to participate in. At the end of the week, those who participated in all five days will be entered in a raffle. Commissioners gave ideas on raffle prizes.
3. Job Fair
 - a. All commissioners will research job opportunities in Campbell for teens and report their findings at the next meeting.
4. Raised Funds
 - a. Liaison Pieracci informed the commissioners on the profits that have been made so far this term and asked what they may like to do with them at the end of the term. Some ideas included finding ways to support small businesses in Campbell, purchasing gift cards to give away, and donating to a soup kitchen or place in need.

INFORMATION ONLY

1. Calendar Reminders: Women's march poster making event Jan 14th, Environment trivia night, Feb 26th, Valentine craft box event Feb 13th
2. Once Around the Table: Youth Commissioners gave brief updates on things happening in their lives this week.
